thousand persons present. This, considering that the no tice was very short and imperfect, must be considered a evidencing a very decided feeling on the subject. The truth is, this station has been so long neglected, and been made the object of the Commissioners' displeasure, the our citizens cannot help feeling and speaking with indig nation at the recent movement of oppression against the workmen. A committee of influential men has gone to Washington.

There has been an arrest here to-day of a man giving himself the unfamiliar appellation of John Smith, on a charge of being engaged is some extensive counterfeiting operations, not only in this State, but also in Massachu setts. He is said to be one of the gang partially discovere-recently at Lancaster, in this State. A fellow by the name of Hawkins, an allegad fugitive from your State for burglary, was also arrested here and committed.

The allegad abduction of a negro waiting woman from the United States Hotel, a few evenings since, by a personcialming to be her master, is exciting considerable feeling here. The cabman was arrested to-day on a charge of committing an assault and battery on the woman. The officer who assisted in carrying her off, it is now asserted, had no warrant.

Extensive preparations are making for the compliment ary concert to Mrs. Watson to-morrow night, at which De Begnis and several others are to appear. It bids fair to be very numerously attended.

GO SHERMAN'S LOZENGES IN ST. LOUIS, IN fact in almost every part of the world, are the most popular medicines known. Many things become popular for a time from fortuitous circumstances—not so with Sherman's articles; they have become popular from experience and intrinsic merits, and therefore they will not be soon forgotten. We only speak of Sherman's Lozenges, as they alone are known. Warehouse, 106 Nassau street, and 3 Ledger buildings, Philadelphis; and 8 State street, Boston.

(G) AMERICAN MUSEUM.—The immense crowds which constantly throng this place of amusement, bear sufficient testimony of the popularity of the establishment and the indefatigability of Mr. Barnum, the manager. The greatest degree of neatness and order prevail here, and the endless number of curiosities, together with the extra situractions put forth on the stage, renders this the most attractive place of amusement in the city. Since the caper of Master Diamond, Barnum has engaged a pupil of Whitlock's, whose heel and toe powers are fully equal to those of his predecessor. The Gipsy Girl still remains here. This establishment has never been opened on Sunday nights, and never will be. So says the manager.

BUFFALO RASCALITY .- One Coleman, of Bu falo, has stolen from our wrappers the certificates long owned by us, and attached to our Hewes' Nerve and Bon-Liniment, and put them on without the least right, moral riegal, to some preparation of his that he calls by the same name. The whole wrapper is in a style to counterfeit ours, description, certificates, &c. verbatim—only leaning off our signature or fac-simile. The public are cautioned against being deceived by such rascality, and cautioned to buy none without our name on it. We have expended thousands in making this known, and thus it that this man cares to depredate upon our rights. The true Liniment may be had of Williams & Co., Hollister & Co., A. Reynolds, Jr., and A. G. Ramsdell, Buffalo; and only at 71 Maiden lane, New York. Every one who at tempts to sell this vile imitation shall be exposed. Comstock & Co., wholesale druggists.

(G- MESSRS. J. PEASE & SON, 45 DIVISION ST. Geatlamen—Under the blessings of Divine Providence your invaluable Compound Extract of Horehound Candy has done wonders. I have, for the last three or four years been afflicted with sickness. My symptoms were severe pains shooting through the top of my shoulders, pain and fainting at the pit of my stonuch, dry and hacking cough, great distress in my back, much spitting of matter, streaked with considerable blood, tightness of the chest, loss of uppetite, respiration often difficult—ih short my physician pronounced my case decided consumption.—I continued in this way for about two years, suffering at times the most excruciating agonies.

I give you this certificate, geutlemen, as I consider it a debt of gratitude which I owe to the virtues of your incomparable remedy. Your grateful friend, Mrs. Ann Godwin, 418 Cherry street.

(17)—ATTENTION IS CALLED TO THE FOLLOWing facts, as they do most conclusively prove the genuine Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort the very best article that can be made to cure coughs and all diseases of chest, lungs, sad liver. Read:—
COUGH AND PAIN IN THE SIDE.—My wife was much troubled with a violent pain in her side and breast, and by physicians pronounced to have the Liver Complaint. I could not get any relief for her until I obtained Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort from 375 Bowery. This remedy has cared her in a few weeks. I believe if all so troubled would use it, they would meet with the same happy result.

Mas. Oaks, 13 Garrisons street, Brooklyn, was so very ill with a dangerous discharge of blood, that she was not expected to live. She had to be supported up in bed to breathe, when she commenced this medicine from 376 Bowery. Incredible as it may appear, she was entirely cured by only one half bottle. In consequence of the multitude of counterfeits, the genuine can be obtained only of the sole propristor, 375 Bowery; in Brocklyn of Mrs. Hays, 139 Falton-Street; Dr. Lewerce, Newark; D. Mitchell, N. Haven.

(17)—THE KREMLIN DINING SALOON, 111 Broadway—AND THE GREAT WINE SALE AT S. DRAPER'S, Ja.—During our perceptination about town yesterdey, we dropped into S. Draper's Action Store, where we found a number of the "Wall street gentry" tasting the samples, but very few purchasing. The auctioneen kept orying out, Going, Going, Gone—Kremlin! Kreanlim! We looked round the room to see what biped would answer to such an extraordinary name, the mystery was soon solved, as we readily recognised the individual who presides at the above establishment, telegraphisg winks and blinks to the knight of the hammer. This fully accounts for the quality and cheapness of wines at the Kremlin Dining Saloons, for we witnessed many epicures yield to his judgment in the selections made yesterday.
Therefore, gentle rusder, if you want a good dinner, cheap and excellent wines, a spleudidly furnished private room,

(G- TO THE PUBLIC.—Not to injure the fair business of others, but to protect our own rights, we cantion against the following Druggists. We have at an immense expense, and by years of toil, made an extensive demand for the "Baim of Columbia," for the hair, and "Hays" Liniment" for the Piles, &c—when one Burritt, in New York, has stolen the names of the Liniment and Balm, and attached them to articles which he tries to sell on the character of ours; and in Philadelphia the following persons have been found to have them, and refuse to refrain from keeping or selling them, viz:

E. A. Hoskins,

W. W. Clark,

George W. Carpenter,

Cave & Schaffer,

Meredith & Henderson, Clement Cressen,

G. D. Witherill & Co. Witherill & Bro.

We leave the public to judge whether those persons will sell counterfeits to other medicines.

We caution dealers to buy only in Philadelphia of our regular agents, E. B. Vaughan, corner Third and Raic streets, and G. W. Riigeway, corner Chesnut and Ninth, as the imitations will be followed, and all exposed by name who offer them. The hames of those in New York, doing the same, will be published in a few days.

Those wanting these preparations will please always write, when ordering from any other house for Comstock's articles.—The true articles have that name or signature always on the wrapper, and venders will do well to remember that, when ordering, as the imitations are so exposed, in nearly all the newspapers throughout this country, that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

MONEY MARKET.

Wednesday, June 1—6 P. M.

The stock market presented no new features to-day. The sales at the Board were small at fluctuating prices. Delaware and Hudson fell 11; Harlem rose 1; Indiana 5's 1; Moware and russon tent 1; New York State 6's per cent.

The Loan of $250,000, which was authorised to be made by a law of the last session of the Virginia Legislature; is not yet taken. The Board of Public Works have limited the price to 95—and no offers which have been made to the Bank of Virginia, (the constituted Agent of the Loan.) have yet reached that ultimatum. In case the negociation be not completed, the $600,000 worth of State Stock now pledged to the Morrisons, will not be redeemed—the interest due on the 1st July will not be paid, and the credit of the State must suffer. The Board of the James River and Kanawha Company was to meet to-day to endeavor to take some target than the company was to meet to-day to endeavor to take some steps to meet the emergency.

The insurance effected on the large book establishment of Harper Brothers was as near as could be ascertained

The election for directors of the Greenwich Bank, is to take place on Monday the 6th inst. The bone fide stockholders, that is the men of real property, who invest their money in stock for the purpose of lending it, and not of making the institution an instrument of borrowing, are about to make a last attempt to procure a change in the management of the bank, before claiming the interference of the Bank Commissioners to save their property from utter ruin. They alleged that the management has been such as to destroy public confidence in the institution, and consequently that depositors have withdrawn their funds, thereby depriving the concern of the most valuable portion of its business; that the price of the stock has fallen 35 per cent within the year; that the means of the bank are locked up in the renewal of accommodation notes; that large amounts of the assets, which might have been collected, remain unprofitably suspended, through the neglect of the present directors; that many losses have been sustained through the same cause; and that a system of favoritism exists, at war with the best interests of all concerned. Under these circumstances they have adopted a "reform ticket," the success of which, they hope will remety the evils complained of, and restore the stock to holders, that is the men of real property, who invest their remedy the evils complained of, and restore the stock to something nearer its par value. The present directors something mearer its par value. The present directors have nominated themselves for re-election and are "laying pipe" to ensure their success. This is a matter that should not be neglected by those interested.

The manufacturers and advocates for high protective duties, who are now making such immense efforts to procure the imposition of an extravagant tariff, seem entirely to overlook the fact, that the duties which they covet for their protection may prove only a bounty to encompass their ruin. Under high duties in the United States the fabrics and wares of Great Britain will flow into the Can-adas and be smuggled across, the lakes into the western States in quantities and at prices which will defy all com-petition from those manufacturers at home who cannot live without protection. Already the produce of the west is flowing into Canada, with an lacreased impetus, derived from the prospective operation of the new British tariff, and the imposition of high duties on British goods by the United States will cause all the supplies of the western States to reach them by the same route. All efforts at preventing smuggling must be ineffectual along such an immense coast as the lake navigation presents. A singular instance of the operation of smuggling, induced by high revenue laws, exists at the present time in the trade be-tween France and Spain, and between the latter country and England. The commercial code of the Spanish government is perhaps one of the most illiberal in the world, and the consequence is that in no country is smugworld, and the consequence is that in no country is smug-gling carried on to so great an extent. R has become re-gularly systematised, notwithstanding the strict police and expensive line of custom houses lately established by Espartero along the French frontier and other quarters. The amount of English goods smuggled into Spain through Fortugal and Gibralter, is computed at $100,000,000 francs per annum, or $18,750,000.

In the towns of Bayoane, Oloron, and Perpignan insurance companies are established who receive heavy premiums for insuring goods snuggled into Spain, and these insurance companies are extensively engaged them-selves in the illicit trade. The loss to the revenues of Spain, by the system of contraband in French and English oottons, is equal to $2,000,000 sterling per annum, in com-parison with a protective duty paid of thirty per cent.— As an instance of the operation of the "protective system', we may state that the importation of cotton manufactured goods into Spain from France is prohibited by the Spanish goods into Spain from France is prohibited by the Spains custom-house regulations, and yet it appears that France curries on a very extensive contraband traffic in that commodity. The trade in question is conducted by "contrabandistas" of the Pyrenees, by whom the goods are smuggled into Cotalonis, where they are stamped as of native origin, and so pass current as real Spanish manufactures. The extent of this traffic was as follows:—

1835. 20,647,328 1839. 22,409,457 1840. 34,251,069 The expense of this contraband trade is not quite so great as would be a moderate revenue duty, consequently all that is imposed above that is a mere government bounty to the smugglers to be paid by consumers. The facilities for greater than those which exist in Spain, owing to the great extent of frontier and the facility of communication. The 1840, were as follows :-

18,517,445 7,319,705 6,176,307 3,086,061 17,550,745 Total 101,679,141 42,684,761 The Commercial intercourse between the two countries for a series of years, was as follows :-

There appears a difference in favor of France of 64,901,383.

This presents the singular fact that nearly the whole intercourse carried on between the two countries is contra-band. The amount of revenues derived by the Spanish government from duties, is scarcely sufficient to maintain the very expensive, but totally inefficient police, supposed to be necessary to enforce absurd tariff laws. And this is the policy which politicians and interested manufacturers would urge upon this government. It is a well known fact that no protection can be extended to manufactures beyond that which a simple revenue duty can afford. As soon as the rate rises above that grade, it becomes an offset to the dangers and risks of smuggling. If the profits of smuggling are large—no dangers will deter the introduction of goods. Formerly by the laws of Spain the ex. port of the precious metals was made a capital crime, but the metals went abroad in spite of the enactment, to as great extent as at the present day. In England the silk weavers of Spitalfields have been more protected by statu-tory law than any other class of manufactures. On their account the silks of France vere prohibited. The result was, that instead of having to contend against the fabrics of France at a reasonable duty, they had to contend against the same articles duty free, because the high prices conse-quent upon the prohibitive duty afforded an immense profit to smugglers. The reverse is the case in France, where the only case towards which a liberal system has been applied is the manufacture of siik. Foreign cotton goods t plied is the manufacture of sink. Potaga cotton goods are excluded; foreign silk goods from any part of the world pay a duty of 13 to 15 per cent; yet so sound and healthy is the manufacture of silk upon the whole, that France is able to export four fifths of the whole of the silk goods she produces. So that while of cotton, protected in every conceivable way, the amount of her exports is trifling, and principally growing out of other circamstances, that of her superiority in taste, her exports of silks are large.

These facts afford matter not only for the consideration of the public at large, but also of those manufacturers who

IMPERIAL BURNERS.

THE Subscribers would call the attention of the public to the superior qualities of their glass fountain shadowless suspending, side and other Lamps. Their glass fountains being nonconductors never become heated like those of brass which are in use, consequently there is no expansion of the contents or escape of unconsumed vapor into the room, wholly different from spirit gas or other compounds for illumination. Horn's new Chemical Oil is not only transparent and staniless, but devoid of seent or smell during combustion, and entirely free from smoke or darser of explosion, yielding a light which for standiness, intensity clearness and beauty cannot be equalled by the best carburetted hydrogen gas. These class fountain lamps require no attention after being once filled and ignited, and will continue to burn ten hours in succession, giving during the whole time a light equivalent to the flames of not less than ten spermaceti candles, and this too at the low price of only half a cent per hour; Hom's patent burner's being so constructed that a fresh current of air is constantly circulating within the very body of the oil, that liquid is thus kept constantly cool in all temperatures.
